Dear Colleagues,

Re.: Addition of new sub-discipline codes for the specialist discipline of Clinical Haematology on the PCN System

According to the Health Professions Act of SA, speciality disciplines must be appropriately grouped, and must reflect all sub-disciplines or sub-specialities within that speciality.

In view of this, the following new sub-disciplines for the speciality of Clinical Haematology have been introduced on the PCN system as required by HPCSA.

Please note that the last seven digits of the practice number remain unchanged.

Discipline	Sub-discipline or Sub-speciality	Discipline description	Sub-discipline/ Sub-speciality description
027	001	Clinical Haematology Independent Practice	Pathology (Haematological)
027	002	Clinical Haematology Independent Practice	Paediatrics
027	003	Clinical Haematology Independent Practice	Medicine

Please find, attached, a copy of the full list of disciplines in Excel format.

Yours sincerely
