Dear Colleagues,

Re: New sub-disciplines for Psychology (086).

According to The Health Professions Council of South Africa, Psychologists are registered under different categories. In order to accommodate these categories, please note that new sub-discipline codes will be introduced onto the PCN system and the current practice numbers will be migrated to their correct categories as per the practitioner's HPCSA registration.

Please note that with effect from 1st March 2011, the new sub disciplines for Psychology will be introduced on the PCN system as indicated below:

Discipline	Sub discipline	Discipline Description	Sub discipline description
086	001	Psychologists	Clinical
086	002	Psychologists	Counselling
086	003	Psychologists	Educational
086	005	Psychologists	Industrial
086	006	Psychologists	Neuropsychologists

Attached please find the HPCSA's framework for Psychologists, Psychometrists and Registered Counsellors, which gives the scope of practice for the different categories of Psychology for your information.
